Dr. Robert Henry.

Dr Robert Henry, who died at his home near Gourdin's on Thursday morning, November 3, 1904, was born September 1, 1830, in Columbia at the South Carolina College, where his father, Robert Henry, LL D., held a professorship and was also the college chaplain.

Dr Robert Henry, Jr., came to Williamsburg county in 1855 and located in Kingstree, where he practiced medicine until 1863. He married Mrs Mary Ann Bradford, who was a daughter of Mr Alexander McKnight.

Leaving Kingstree Dr Henry established himself near Gourdin's, where he was a very successful practitioner for forty-one years.

Dr Henry was an unassuming gentleman of the old school. Endowed with unusual intellectual powers, refined by deep and broad culture, he had large opportunities to accomplish good, and so well did he measure up to them that he endeared himself to all who knew him.

In 1881, Dr Henry was elected a member of the General Assembly from this county, and after two years service retired from politics and devoted himself to the practice of his profession.

The surviving members of his family are, his wife, one sister—Miss Henrietta Henry; two nieces—Mrs Warrington Oliver and Mrs Moultrie Oliver; and three nephews—Charlie Massey, of Bishopville; Robert Footman of Greelyville and Robert Massey, whose home is in North Carolina.

Dr Henry was buried at New Market Methodist church, the funeral service being read by Rev L L Inabinet. The pall-bearers were: Messrs W F Rodgers, R H Pittman, Sam Graham, Samuel Oliver, Julius Gambel and B E Clarkson.

Dr Henry's death is an irreparable loss to our community and all over the county a large circle of friends share our sorrow and bereavement.
